Prevention of Animal Cruelty
In Emergency Response Situations

MDBA PACERS is a registered charitable organisation which exists to provide a safety net for domestic animal owners and their pets when they are in unexpected dire circumstances as a result of personal or natural disaster.

We are calling on craft items to be donated for our Inaugural Craft exhibition and Fundraising Auction at the Jika International 551 Heidelberg Rd Fairfield, Victoria, Australia 3078 on the 19th and 20th March 2011. Accepting Exhibits Now.

Categories include Quilting, sewing, knitting, crocheting, wool craft, needle work, leatherwork, woodwork, art , photography and other crafts.

Each entrant may submit as many pieces as they like. An entrant must send the finished product to P.O. Box 31 Ganmain.NSW 2702 via receipted delivery for the competition by the close date of 28th of January 2011.

Pieces will be judged by 5 independent judges. Entries will not be returned to the entrant and will become the property of MDDBA Pacers [Preventing Animal Cruelty In Emergency Response Situations]. By entering the competition an entrant gives permission to MDDBA Pacers to accept ownership of the product and to use it for promotions, publicity and fundraising activities. All entries must be postmarked no later than 28th January, 2011.

Further information is available by calling MDDBA Pacers 0269276706 via our website www.mdbapacers.org.au or email info@mdbapacers.org.au
